

Call for the development of a Marxist-Leninist-Maoist united front

RSF Editorial Board

Today, comrades from several revolutionary organisations have reached a united front of Marxist-Leninist-Maoist forces. We are here to call on more good and truly Marxist-Leninist-Maoist organisations in our country to join the United Front. Similarly, we also hope that some outstanding comrades will join the revolutionary work being carried out by the United Front to develop our common revolutionary cause and contribute to the development of the revolutionary cause in our country.

1. for comrades who want to do the propaganda of the Telegraph Group and the organisation of the Telegraph Group, you can join the organisation of the East Wind.
2. For comrades who want to do propaganda work for current reviews, dailies, monthly magazines, etc., we, on the other hand, invite you to join the organisation of the Struggle Commune.
3. Comrades who want to specialise in the creation of theoretical or other high-quality articles can join the RSF.
4. Comrades who want to do offline organising work can choose to join RSF or Dongfeng.
5. Comrades who want to participate in the work of labour integration now can contact the comrades of "Going to the Workers".
6. For those who wish to participate in theoretical studies, training in basic revolutionary work skills and other revolutionary work afterwards, please contact Death Knell, where the workshops or workers' seminars are located.
7. If you would like to work as a translator (specialising in translating UF organisational articles as well as translating internationally important articles into Chinese), please contact the UF email address.
8. The official Twitter account of the United Front has been activated, and comrades are welcome to follow it.
9. For organisational matters (e.g. joining the United Front on behalf of your own organisation, or for co-operation, etc.), please contact the United Front's email address or Twitter account to explain the situation. At the end of this article, we will provide contact information for all the organisations and institutions mentioned here.
