

Trouble Brewing in the USSR?

The Afghanistan war, national oppression in the USSR, the alienation of youth, the future of Soviet society — these are some of the topics a West German radical discussed on a recent trip through the USSR.

Philippines

In a recent interview the Chairman of the Communist Party of the Philippines discusses international relations. A response refutes his view that forces tied to imperialism, especially in the Soviet bloc, can aid revolution in the Philippines, and argues that such grave errors are the inevitable result of the CPP leadership's departure from Marxism-Leninism-Mao Tsetung Thought.

Colombia

This article, written by the Revolutionary Communist Group of Colombia, examines the strategies for coming to power put forward by various armed organisations in Colombia, focusing on the urban-centred "Nicaraguan model," and contrasts these to Mao's concept of waging protracted people's war and establishing red political power in the countryside under the leadership of a genuine communist party.

A World to Win has been inspired by the formation of the Revolutionary Internationalist Movement, announced on March 12th, 1984, which has regrouped many Marxist-Leninist parties and organisations from around the world. It is not an official organ of the RIM. Its pages are open to all those on the same sides of the barricades in the fight against imperialism and reaction.

STEP FORWARD!

A World to Win cannot accomplish its tasks without the active support of its readers. Letters, articles and criticism are needed and welcome. Manuscripts should be typed double spaced. In addition we need translators, help with distribution (including through commercial channels) to make this magazine available in as many countries as possible, art work (as well as clippings and original photos), and of course financial contributions from those who understand the importance of the continued publication of this magazine. This includes both individual contributions and the efforts of those who undertake the responsibility for raising funds for this magazine. Send pledges and donation cheques made out to "A World to Win."
