

Joint Statement

Proletarian Party of East Bengal (Maoist Unity Group) Bangladesh
Kangleipak Communist party (KCP) Manipur

Pave the Way for a new Coordination for the Maoist Parties and Organizations of South Asia

The revolution is the only answer to the present crisis in the South Asia. A revolution guided by the Marxism-Leninism-Maoism is required in the south Asia for a better future of the oppress masses of the region. Whether in a colonial country or an imperialist country, the strategy of Maoist Revolution includes the internationalization of the revolution. This is necessary both to defend what has been gained and to achieve the full potential of socialist society. The most effective form of defense is the spreading of the revolution to those countries through the mobilization of their own working classes both to oppose intervention and to pursue their own class interests. To be strong enough to mount a challenge to the political power of the colonial ruler, the working class and the oppressed must create their own popular People Army. Based on such fighting organs, the oppressed nation can take power via peoples' war against the Colonial ruler.

We believe that correct tactics flow from correct strategies, which flow from a correct ideological and political line. We believe that the fight against imperialism, capitalism and colonial ruler goes hand in hand with the fight against revisionism, chauvinism, and opportunism. We believe that correct tactics flow from correct strategies, which flow from a correct ideological and political line. We believe that the fight against imperialism, capitalism and colonial ruler hand in hand with the fight against revisionism, chauvinism, and opportunism.

We believe that the ruling colonial bourgeoisie will never give up its power without a fight. Putting an end to the colonial ruler is only possible by building public opinion to seize power through armed struggle. We believe, however, that any armed insurrection on the territory of South Asia will be inevitably crushed until an arising of objective conditions for its mass support of the potentially revolutionary strata of the population.

Non existence of the Coordinating Committee of the Maoist party and Organization of South Asia has deeply impact to the new generation communist of South Asia. The New generation of South Asia communist has eagerly demanded to have a coordination of the oppress masses of the region. So the Proletarian Party of East Bengal (Maoist Unity Group) Bangladesh and Kangleipak Communist party (KCP) Manipur had a discussion on the matter and we firmly agreed to initiate a process to the formation of New coordinating committee of the Maoist party and organization of the South Asia. The meetings further institute a preparatory Committee to materialize the matter and Comrade Polas of Bangladesh and Comrade Yaibi-Len of Manipur has nominated as Convener and Co Convener respectively. We will include others in the committee as soon as possible we get their approval.

Long Live Revolution!

Long Live Maoism!

Long Live the Unity among Maoist Parties and Organizations of South Asia!
