COMMUNIST CHINA DIGEST

No. 195

(Title-Author Index to Hung-ch'i, 1966-1967)

PREFACE

The Communist China Digest is a serial publication which presents information concerning all major aspects of Chinese life. It provides selected reports from translations of Chinese Communist and other publications. These selections seek to be (1) representative of the type of material appearing on the subject, (2) major statements or decisions on the subject, and/or (3) national policy decisions, statements or activities. In general, these reports are extracts or summaries. Full translations will be so indicated. Notes or comments appearing in brackets are made by JPRS.

This issue of the Communist China Digest is a title and author index to the translations of the 1966 and 1967 issues of the Chinese Communist theoretical journal Hung-ch'i (Red Flag). This report supplements Communist China Digest No. 164, JPRS: 34,541 of 14 March 1966 which provides a title-author index to the 1958-1965 issues of Hung-ch'i.
