

STEP FORWARD!

A World to Win cannot accomplish its tasks without the active support of its readers. Letters, articles and criticism are needed and welcome. Manuscripts should be typed double spaced. In addition there are many other needs that you can help to fulfill:

Translation. A World to Win must be regularly published in as many languages as possible. This requires a large number of translators to take part in the network of the various language editions. Those potential translators who are not directly in touch with the language edition they are interested in should contact our London office. (If you are interested in putting out an edition in a language other than those A World to Win currently appears in, please contact us.)

Distribution. A World to Win must be made widely available in as many countries of the world as possible. This means that activists must develop multifaceted and creative methods for distributing it according to the conditions in their country as well as utilising regular commercial channels where possible. Local initiatives should be written up and communicated to us so that they can be centrally coordinated and summed up; we can also provide suggestions and materials to those who step forward to take up this essential work.

Art Work. A World to Win needs the assistance of artists engaged in the revolutionary movement. Drawings, cartoons, paintings and other art work should be sent to us. In particular, it is necessary that we receive clippings and original photographs from all around the world.

Funds. The price charged for A World to Win does not begin to cover the full expenses of putting it out. We are therefore reliant on the financial contributions of those who understand the importance of the continued publication of this magazine and those who undertake responsibility for raising funds. Send pledges and donation cheques made out to "A World to Win" directly to our London office.
