

Kant's Manifesto¹

After the snoring of the rooster this morning
the camp hill that was said to be difficult
was hit by a storm with waves of sound
stronger than the sound of rain and thunder...
Our sweat and blood
life and body
were sacrificed every day
and we continued to march
while the bombs from the sky were raining down and the revolutionary spirit was established and the enemy was defeated.
Our comrades sang in unison

“We have raised the red flag on the hill ...”

Kant Daung was lying flat under our feet .

Kant Daung’s victory was floating in the air

like the opening of a sack of rice at the port of Kutu.

Kant Daung’s victory may comrades, people and friends

be joyful and strong...

Kant Daung's victory has made everyone

tremble with fear.

The people know who wants to fight

and who doesn't.

Kant Daung's victory is small, but it has a big capital...

Hey...

However, the victory of Kant Daung

has further proven that the “ideal spirit”

of the people’s heroes is still high.

The victory of Kant Daung

has highlighted the path of the revolutionary war.

May the victory of Kant Daung be long-lasting.

May the people’s heroes of Kant Daung

be eternally remembered.

Comrade Aung Do
